PUBLIC INDIGNNTION.

Views of Prominent Citizens in Reference to the Late Seizures.

Vigorous Protests Against the Do Nothing Policy—A Little Plain Talk.

A representative of THE TIMES to-day waited upon a number of our leading citizens with a view to eliciting their views upon the all-absorbing question of the seizure of Canadian vessels in the Behring Sea by U.S. revenue cutters. Without a single exception the gentlemen interviewed were outspoken in their condemnation of the piratical acts of the United States government, as well as of the studied neglect of our interests by the British and Canadian authorities. The following sentiments were elicited:

Mr. William Wilson—You ask me what I think of the recent seizure. My belief is that if there had been no eastern fishery difficulty there would have been none in Behrings Sea. Until after there was trouble east there was none here. The general opinion seems to be that the action of the Americans in Behring Sea is prompted more by a spirit of retaliation than by a belief in the justice of their claims. The interests of the Alaska Fur Company are more likely to have weight at Washington than the protection of the seals, although the latter has been prominently put forward as a justification of the course taken by the United States. Political hypocrisy on this continent does not seem to be confined to the Dominion of Canada. The seizures made lately are but the second edition of what took place two years ago. They were to be be expected as it was publicly announced that the steamer Rush had orders to capture every sealer it could catch in Behring sea. Telegrams, official dispatches, expressions of indignation and tall talk by newspaper editors are well enough in their way, but they are no compensation to suffering sealers. I am quite of Mayor Grant's opinion, expressed in the legislature last session, that the government which taxes its citizens should protect them in the prosecution of their lawful business and if they suffer loss through international differences that the government should make them good. An Ottawa journal suggests a Dominion gunboat or two. Force is no remedy for Canada in a dispute with the United States. It would be just as sensible for an undeveloped youth to attack Sullivan for treading on his toes. The result could be predicted beforehand. After a short scrimmage Sullivan would be walking about as if nothing had happened, while the unfortunate youth would be carried away on a stretcher to either a doctor or an undertaker. The gunboat solution might as well be dropped out of the question. We dont want smoke and disturbance which when over, would leave us wondering what had become of the Dominion of Canada. Arbitration will eventually settle the difficulty. In the meantime the Dominion government ought to pay the sealers for their losses and recoup itself when it squares up fishing accounts with the United States.

Mr. Robert Ward, President of the Board of Trade said:—The value and growing importance of the sealing industry have long been recognized by commercial men of the province and particularly of Victoria. Here the sealers fit out and invariably return with their catch, Victoria for many years having been considered a peculiarly desirable market for disposing of skins and furs. Such an important factor in our industries has always commanded the respect of the Board of Trade, with a view of encouraging and fostering it. I find we took a great deal of interest in the first seizures made by the United States government, and I find the following reference was made in 1886-7:

"The seizure and subsequent release of British sealing schooners in Behring sea by American cruisers, combined with similar international difficulties on the Atlantic seaboard, point to the urgent necessity for the framing of a new treaty with the United States, with a renewal in substance of the fishery provisions contained in the Washington Treaty of 1871."

Owners, although at first alarmed at the seizures made in 1886-87, naturally considered that reparation would be promptly made, and scarcely looked for a repetition of the course adopted by the United States government. However, you are probably aware that no adjustment of these claims has yet been made. Perhaps the minute of council passed in September, 1887 by the British Columbia Board of Trade might prove interesting and I will hand you a copy of it.

Minute of Council of British Columbia Board of Trade, re Behring Sea Seizures:

In view of the great importance to the province of the seal fishing industry, the large amount of capital invested therein, the annual outlay and profits, and wages of the various persons engaged in the business; and the recurrence of so many seizures of British Columbia vessels in Behring sea whereby widespread loss and distress have resulted to those engaged in the industry and to their families; besides affecting most disastrously the commercial interests of the province; and considering also that the matter of the seizures above referred to is still in abeyance, this Board strongly urges upon the Dominion government the advisability of referring the entire question relating to the seal fisheries in Behring sea to the International Commission appointed or about to be appointed in connection with what is commonly termed the fisheries question, and suggests that the matter of seal fisheries in Behring sea, and the seizures of vessels already referred to, should be dealt with by the said Commission. The Board also recommends that in view of the large number of persons directly interested in the industry residing within the province, the Commission should hold a sitting at Victoria to enable them to obtain more ready access to persons and papers.

ROBT. WARD, President.
W. MORGANS, Secretary.

Victoria, B. C., 30th Sept., 1887.

Strong representations to the Dominion government have repeatedly been made by the board: the matter as you are aware was on more than one occasion very ably and freely debated in the House of Commons, and we have received positive assurances from the Dominion government that the entire question was one which had been forcibly put forward before the Imperial authorities, and was in fact a matter of negociation then in progress. The recent seizure of the schooner Black Diamond has revived a feeling of alarm and irritation which might be difficult to control; and those interested in the sealing industry, in common with the business community generally, cannot naturally understand why injuries of this serious character can be inflicted with impunity by a foreign government, in the pursuit of a policy of jurisdiction now set up, and which a few years ago it strongly repudiated when claimed by the government of Russia. At this distance it is of course difficult to understand the apparent apathy of the Imperial Government, when the lion's tail has had such a twisting, but there is scarcely room to doubt that if any further delays are permitted in the adjustment of an international question of this importance, particularly if further seizures follow, the feeling of irritation and injury will have reached its limit, and will leave questions for solution far more serious and difficult than the one which has so long remained in abeyance.

Mr. Mussie—I consider that one of our most important and legitimate industries has been seriously affected by the arbitrary actions of the United States government in the Behring Sea matter. I am sure the United States has no more right to exercise authority over the industry on the high seas than any other nation. If they are anxious to protect the seal life, as they claim, why not protect the breeding rookeries on the islands, which are their own territory. Allow no one to slaughter seal on those rookeries, not even the Alaska Commercial Company; allow the industry to be prosecuted by her citizens on the high seas, where the masses will be benefitted. Alaska was purchased with her citizens money, consequently the resources of the territory rightfully belong to those citizens in general, but it would appear the authorities are taking a selfish view in the matter by reserving those privileges and placing them in the possession of favored companies.

Hon. J. H. Turner—I scarcely know what to make of it. It appears to be a very arbitrary proceeding on the part of the United States, and yet it would also appear as if there were some arrangement between the two governments. If there is not I consider a British man-of-war would be perfectly justified in proceeding to retake a captured vessel. These warships are supposed to be a kind of marine police used for the protection of commerce in all parts of the globe, and I do not know where there could be more use for them than in the case. But if the British government does not intend to protect our sealers it should certainly indemnify the owners if the vessels are seized. In all that has been said on the subject England has never admitted the claims of the United States nor taken any steps to warn our vessels against going into Behring sea or given them to understand that they went at their own risk. As they have not done this but have left us to understand that they intended to maintain their rights there, I consider that all claims for damages should go to England and not to the United States. If the same thing were done in this case as we done in the Trent affair, the matter would soon be settled and without any war either. Besides, as the United States does not mind running the chances of war there is no reason why the British government should be too particular either. If they were to do this the Colonies would stand by them to a man. Twenty years ago there would have been no hesitation about settling the matter this way if necessary, but it is different now. The people of England no doubt look upon this as a very small matter, but depend upon it it is the worst thing that could happen for our connections with the Old Country.

FROM THE SEALING GROUNDS.

Return of Capt. Steward's Schooner with News from Onnalaska.

The sealing schooner Walter L. Rich, Capt. H. P. Steward, arrived from Onnalaska at 1 o'clock this morning. Capt. Steward informed a TIMES representative that he transferred his seal skins to the schooner Wanderer at Sand Point and sailed for Onnalaska. On the 4th July Capt. Steward had a conversation with Capt. Sheppard, of the revenue cutter Richard Rush. The captain of the U. S. revenue cutter stated that his orders were to seize all sealing schooners in the Behring Sea, irrespective of nationality, found in the act of capturing seals. Having seal skins on board would not make a vessel liable to seizure, but traces of recent killing of seals in the waters of Behring Sea would be considered sufficient evidence to carry out instructions from the American government and take the vessels in charge. Capt. Sheppard stated that he would sail from Onnalaska in a few days and would, most likely, return with one of the schooners. Capt. Steward considered it advisable to remain in Onnalaska until the Rush returned and was in port be the 15th July, when the Rush steamed into the harbor. Capt. Sheppard then informed Capt. Steward that the Black Diamond was found with over one hundred fresh killed seals on board and was placed in charge of an officer with orders to sail for Onnalaska. He also reported that the Triumph was boarded by Lieut. Tuttle. On July 7th there were five schooners at Onnalaska, including the Lillie L. and Allie Alger. Capt. Steward reports that he captured 1425 skins. On the voyage from the Behring Sea he saw a schooner, supposed to be the Black Diamond, heading towards the haven of seized sealers, Onnalaska.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

BANQUET.

Mr. A. C. Flummerfelt, president of the Victoria Lacrosse club, will give the lacrosse team a banquet next week in recognition of their two victories during the month.

JACKSON IN TORONTO.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—Peter Jackson, colored champion pugilist, is to give sparring exhibitions here shortly.

ROUGH PLAYING.

In Winnipeg they appear to have a cure for rough players. In the lacrosse match between the Ninetieths and Winnipegs last week the Free Press says: "The match would undoubtedly have been a rough one had not Mr. Fisher been the right kind of a referee. In all he ruled off five men with very beneficial effects to the balance of the players. There has been undoubtedly an unfortunate tendency in both clubs towards playing lacrosse on the "get there" system—it is well that it has been so effectually sat upon." If the referee in the Victoria-Vancouver match had been of the same metal there would have probably been none of the unseemly play referred to by the Colonists.

COLORED PRIZE FIGHTERS.

Billy Wilson, champion colored heavyweight pugilist of the world, is in Seattle accompanied by Prof. Jefferson. Wilson, who never drank a drop of liquor or used tobacco, is on his way to meet Pete Jackson, the black Hercules. Wilson weighs 195 pounds and has an arm like John L. Sullivan's.

LACROSSE.

The Columbian is the only authority the home team has that a match is to be played with Westminster on the 10th inst. If the Westminster boys are desirous of playing a friendly match, and wish to arrange one, all they require to do is to send a communication to the Secretary, Mr. Morrow, and their wants will, without doubt, be attended to. As to playing on the 10th inst., it will be too short notice, especially as up to date no official notification has been received by the Victorias. The Columbian need not be afraid that the Victorias will indulge in rough play, as it is not their forte. Had the Vancouverites played the steady game that their opponents did, the result might have been different.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

High School Teachers Protest Against Overloading—Sudden Death.

Randolph Churchill Scored by the Press—The Cabinet Begins to Move.

By Postal Telegraph.)

Ottawa, Aug. 1.—The cabinet has decided to send a letter to the Imperial government protesting against the long time the Behring Sea question is being held in abeyance, and petitioning for immediate settlement of the matter, irrespective of the Atlantic fisheries question.

THE FELL DISEASE.

Brunswick, Ga., Aug. 1—Yellow fever is reported to have been discovered here.

NAVAL HERO DEAD.

London, Aug. 1.—Admiral Thomas Baillie who during the Crimean war was commander of the British fleet in the White sea, and successfully blockaded the Russian fleet, is dead.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—Geo. C. Baker, a deck hand on the government steamer McDowell, was accidentally knocked overboard last night and drowned.

STEAMER LIBELLED.

Kingston, Aug. 1.—Last night the steamer Pierrepont, of the St. Lawrence River Steamer Co., was libelled at Cape Vincent, N. Y., by an insurance company which met a loss occasioned by the sinking of the schooner Ellsworth at Grindstone Island last year. Bonds to the value of $1,371 were given before the steamer was released. The insurance company claim the steamer was liable for the accident.

JUST AS WELL NOT.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—The high school masters of Ontario are holding a convention here and protesting against the tendency of the day to overload the curriculum of the schools. A motion was adopted by a large majority requesting the Minister of Education not to put the subject of Zoology on the list of subjects.

MONTREAL BUDGET.

Montreal, Aug. 1.—There has been practically no wheat transactions in several weeks. One prominent dealer said to-day: "Manitoba No. 1 is actually worth not more than $1.03; No. 2 is worth 95 cents," while another large dealer said that Manitoba No. 2 could not be laid down in Montreal for less than $1.10 and No. 1 at $1.14 to $1.17.

Young Swinyard, son of the general manager of the Dominion Telegraph Co., has not yet been heard of. The latest news of him is that he was seen on the afternoon of the 4th by some friends, to whom he showed a railroad ticket and $7. That evening he was seen on the outgoing Quebec boat. His father, who had sold out in Hamilton and left for New York, states that he has not yet been heard from.

The Star announces that the government has referred the question of the constitutionality of the Jesuit estates act to the Imperial Privy Council.

Adolph G. Grenier, son of Mayor Grenier, died yesterday, aged 34 years. He was a young man of much promise.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Watford, Ont., Aug. 1.—J. C. Tye, proprietor of the Guide-Advocate, died suddenly of heart disease on Tuesday.

TRAFFIC RESUMED.

Thorold, Ont., Aug. 1.—The break at lock No. 16 of the new Welland canal has been repaired and locking commenced at 4 o'clock this morning.

NEW DIOCESES.

Kingston, Aug. 1.—Two new dioceses will be suffragan to the archbishopric of Kingston, namely, Peterboro and another new diocese to be formed out of the eastern portion of Kingston diocese with Cornwall as the head of the see.

SUSPENSE ENDED.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—Mrs. Muller has come to the conclusion that the "Kitty Doane" who killed herself in New York is not her daughter.

"RANDY" SCORED.

London, Aug. 1.—All the morning papers contain long comments on Lord Randolph Churchill's latest utterances. The Standard sums up its criticism of his position with a caustic reflection upon his inconsistency and rails at him as a hack politician upon whom no school of opinion can rely six weeks together. The Times and other papers ridicule his proposals as unworthy of serious discussion.

SECOND READING.

London, Aug. 1.—In the House of Commons yesterday the Speaker put the question of the second reading of the royal grants bill, and there being no call for a division, decided that the second reading had been carried.

DEADLY YELLOW JACK.

New York, Aug. 1.—Dispatches from Venezuela say more than half the population of Belijoke has been swept away by yellow fever. The survivors who are cut off from outside communication are reported in a starving condition.

WONDERFULLY PRESERVED.

Paris, Aug. 1.—The remains of General Carnot, grand father of the President of the Republic, which were exhumed at Magdeburg have been transferred to the Pantheon here. An examination shows them to be in a wonderful state of preservation.

ALASKA'S SALMON PACK.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—The barkentine C. C. Funk, just arrived from Western Alaska, confirms the news of a failure of the salmon pack there, owing to cold weather and heavy storms of snow, which have prevailed for the entire season.

INSANE BOMB THROWER.

Dr. F. A. Hodges, who several years ago threw a bomb at Adeline Patti while singing in one of her concerts at the Grand Opera House in this city, and for which he served two years imprisonment, has just been committed to the insane asylum.

MORE COAL

A Splendid Seam of Coal Struck at Northfield Yesterday.

The news was brought into Nanaimo yesterday, says the Courier, that a seam of coal, about 8 feet thick, had been struck by the sinkers under the management of Mr. R. Scott at Northfield mine, the property of the Vancouver Coal Co. As far as can be ascertained the coal is of the very best quality on the Pacific coast, equal to, if not better than that of the Wellington colliery. This valuable discovery will materially increase their output of coal. The company did not expect to strike the seam for at least two weeks yet. The railway for the transportation of the coal to the bay is being rapidly pushed forward under the superintendance of R. Hayland, C. E. It is rumored that the Vancouver Coal Company will start another bore for coal on their Southfield property.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THE LATE H. M'NAB STUART.

Coroner's Inquest Held at the City Hall Yesterday.

At 6 o'clock last evening Coroner Jackson held an inquest to ascertain the cause of H. McNab Stuart's death. The following jurymen were sworn: R. Maynard (foreman), Samuel Clay, W. H. Pennock, H. Lilley, W. C. Kerr and Julius Barror.

J. S. Yates, of Yates & Jay, appeared on behalf of Dr. Milne. J. P. Walls appeared for the friends of deceased.

The coroner and jury visited Mr. Heal's residence and viewed the remains. They returned to the City Hall and before evidence was taken Mr. Yates said that Dr. Milne was not the physician of deceased and performed no post mortem examination.

Dr. Jackson—I know that Dr. Milne did not perform a post mortem examination. The coroner's jury was summoned from their business and have to adjourn again. Dr. Milne received due notice to attend a post mortem examination.

Dr. Milne—I sent word by the police officer this morning that I was not able to act and also telephoned the coroner giving reasons for declining to act.

Dr. Jackson—Yes, you telephoned. What were your reasons?

Dr. Milne—That I refused to perform a post mortem examination, and seriously imperil the lives of a dozen women among my patients thereby, when you can get any number of medical men in this city who have not the same considerations against them.

Dr. Jackson—Every man who has something on hand to pay him better will refuse to attend.

J. P. Walls asked whether there was any necessity for a post mortem examination.

Dr. Jackson said the law read that a post mortem examination could be held at the discretion of the coroner.

Mr. Walls contended that the word "discretion" meant legal discretion. If the coroner did not wish to listen to his remarks he needn't.

The coroner informed Mr. Walls that he was wasting time. He did not wish hear any remarks from that gentleman.

Mr. Yates said the coroner would admit that it was dangerous to attend delicate cases after attending a post mortem examination. The law states that a physician should receive ample notice, and in this case but twelve hours passed between the time the physician was notified and the holding of the inquest.

Dr. Jackson said any physician might make a similar excuse. He asked Mr. Yates whether it was the coroner's duty to run around the city asking every medical officer to attend an examination.

Mr. Yates—Certainly not. You can telephone if you wish.

Dr. Jackson—The post mortem examination will be performed when I think proper.

Mr. Yates—Very well. I have said all that is necessary on the subject.

Mr. Walls—I appear on behalf of the friends of the deceased. Is there any necessity for a post mortem? There is no sworn evidence of poisoning in this case and I can see nothing in the Canadian statutes to compel a doctor to perform a post mortem examination unless ordered by the jury.

Dr. Jackson—I understand, Mr. Walls, that you contend that the coroner has no power to order a post mortem examination without the advice of the jury.

Mr. Walls—Exactly.

Dr. Jackson—There is no use wasting farther time. Dr. Milne received notice to hold an examination and he will have to do so. I will give him one week if necessary to hold the post mortem.

The evidence of Mrs. Maria Heal was then taken. The witness stated that deceased came to the residence on Yates street at 1 o'clock on Monday afternoon and asked for a drink of water. After drinking the water deceased said he intended to sleep for an hour. Witness and her daughter followed deceased to his room; he put some water in a glass and rinsed it out of the window; deceased asked witness to leave the room, stating at the same time that he wished to sleep. Went down stairs and locked the door; heard deceased snoring until 4 o'clock.

Mr. Walls—Please repeat the last few words.

Dr. Jackson—Mr. Walls, I wish you would not interrupt the witness.

Mr. Walls—Well, I can't hear.

Dr. Jackson (to witness)—Don't mind anyone else; attend to me and the jury.

Witness—Between the two of you I am getting confused.

Witness then went on to say that Mr. Heal was asked to see Mr. Stuart; her husband said, "Let him sleep until morning." Witness insisted on Mr. Heal seeing the deceased and he knocked at the door several times; received no answer; Mr. Heal went for a policeman; he returned with Officer Redgrave; they broke open the door and found the body.

To a juror—We found him dead seven hours after he came home.

Mr. Walls—Will you kindly read the last part of the evidence, sir?

The coroner—I don't see what you want to interfere for at all.

Mr. Walls—Well, sir, the deceased was a close friend of mine professionally, and I have instructions also from other friends to appear in their behalf.

By the police—I did not clean MacNab Stuart's room on the morning of his death. My little girl did. I was not in the room yesterday when he came home. I recognize tumbler produced. Powder produced is similar to that found in his room last night.

Dr. Renwick stated—Was regular medical attendant on deceased; attended him three years ago for Bright's disease; thought him in good health; his heart was not strong.

Dr. Jackson—He was in good health, but his heart was not strong?

Dr. Renwick—Certainly. Otherwise his health was good.

Dr. Jackson—I think we can dispense with the evidence of a man who makes a statement like that.

Dr. Jackson then tore up the evidence of Dr. Renwick.

Mr. Walls considered the action of the coroner most outrageous.

Dr. Jackson (to Supt. Sheppard)—Please remove that man.

Supt. Sheppard—Sit down Mr. Walls.

Mr. Walls resumed his seat but continued to protest against the action of the coroner.

David C. Heal corroborated the evidence of his wife.

The coroner then asked Dr. Milne whether he intended to make a post mortem examination.

Dr. Milne declined to make the examination.

Dr. Jackson then adjourned the inquest for one week and stated that he would take the necessary steps to enforce the penalty provided for refusing to attend an examination.

A STORY SPOILED.

The Report About the Purchase of the Drydock Denied.

Wilmington, Del., July 30.—Inquiry at the Harlan & Holdingsworth and Pusey & Jones companies' offices in regard to the reported shipbuilders' syndicate for the purpose of purchasing the British navy yard on Vancouver Island, elicits the information that the Wilmington shipbuilders owned have no connection and no knowledge of any such enterprise.

TO THE TIMES ONLY.

A Public Works Department Official Arrested for Forgery.

The Manitoba Crop Reports—A Horrible Crime—Military, Etc.

(Special to THE TIMES.)

Ottawa, Aug. 1—Louis Cornellier, arrested yesterday on a charge of forgery on the Public Works Department, was remanded in the police court this morning for a week. His brother, a lawyer of Montreal, will appear to defend him.

CROP REPORTS.

Winnipeg, Aug. 1.—The Canadian Pacific crop bulletin, just issued, gives a satisfactory account of the state of crops throughout Manitoba and Northwest Territories. Conservative authority estimates the wheat crop at ten million bushels.

BURKE GOING BACK.

Chief of Police Hubbard arrived yesterday to take Martin Burke to Chicago. He is accompanied by a large escort to prevent any attempt at capture. The extradition order is expected to arrive from Ottawa on Saturday next.

A HORRIBLE CRIME.

The body of an unknown man has been found near Carnduff, Assiniboine, on the banks of the Souris River. The body shows evidence of being murdered after "Jack the Ripper" fashion, the stomach and abdomen being cut open and the entrails scattered about.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING.

Brandon, Aug. 1.—Martin McDonald, ex-registrar, was arrested last evening by detective Foster on a warrant for embezzling certain books of the registry office of which he had charge.

A DEAD BEAT.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—R. A. Wade, representing himself as a Chicago lawyer working up a big case, has disappeared after having borrowed sums amounting to $2000 from legal and other friends made during his stay in this city.

SORROWFUL EXPERIENCE.

Port Hope, Ont., Aug. 1.—A pleasure party from here yesterday had a narrowful experience. Mrs. Arthur MacMahon's six-year old boy fell from a steamer on Rice lake and was drowned. On the return journey in the dark the vehicle containing the party rolled down an embankment, the following persons receiving severe injuries: John Jeffs, Mrs. Tempest, Mrs. H. V. Sanders and Mrs. Mackie.

MILITARY.

Toronto, Aug. 1.—It is probable the Dominion military system will be extended to the northwest next year.

M'CARTHY AND DENISON EN ROUTE.

Dalton McCarthy, M. P., accompanied by Col. Denison, M. P., left to-day for a trip to the Northwest and British Columbia.

AROUND VANCOUVER ISLAND.

Steamer Sir James Douglas Arrives From the Indian Settlements.

The Dominion steamer Sir James Douglas arrived in the harbor at two o'clock this afternoon from a voyage around Vancouver Island. The steamer, with Hon. P. O'Reilly, Indian Commissioner, and Mr. Ashdown Green, left this port on June 14th last and called at the Indian settlements on the west coast. The Indians were all well and appeared to be contented. The vessel called at Skeena river and reports that the salmon run is almost a failure. The canneries were about to take their boats off the river on account of the presence of dog salmon, the forerunners generally of the close of the run. The crew captured three deer during the voyage. One fine four year old buck was brought down on the steamer and will be presented to Ald. Goodacre to be placed in the deer park at Beacon Hill. The steamer called at Alert Bay where the run of salmon was very good. The canneries are all busy catching and preparing fish. On Wednesday afternoon Messrs. O'Reilly and Green were landed at Nanaimo.

KICKS FROM THE NICOLA KICKER.

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES.

SIR,—Why is this part of the Yale district so sadly neglected by our highly elevated M. P. P.'s until on the eve of elections? Then it's, "How do you do?" "How are crops?" and "What can I do for you?" etc. Oh, how the most of us would be very much pleased to see some of our members once in a while, at least oftener than once in four years! Our roads need looking after between Nicola Lake and Spence's Bridge, over which the bulk of the teaming is done for this very important part of the district, also for Similkameen and Granite Creek. Thus on account of the heavy hills, the narrowness and crookedness of the road, all the hauling can only be done by two and four horse teams, it being almost impossible to drive more than four horses; consequently freight rates are higher than they would be if heavy teams could be driven that could draw from eight to ten thousand pounds, instead of a two horse team hauling two thousand or a four horse team hauling four to five thousand. One man could handle a big team with as much ease as with a single team, if the road was only in respectable shape. From Nicola Lake to Spence's Bridge the road, with few exceptions, remains just as it was left by the contractor—a ten foot road with but few turnouts for teams to pass in bad places. I have had to lift my wagon off the grade, or else unhitch my team and run the wagon back to where there was a suitable passing place. While between Nicola Lake and Kamloops the roadbed was made wide, and ample provisions made in most places for teams to pass, and from time to time the hills have been improved on and avoided where it was possible to do so. At present a gang of men are busy improving and lengthening the road to Kamloops. All this is "done for a purpose," to try and divert the trade in that direction by making it easier to travel over the Kamloops than the Spence's bridge part of the road.

It is the intention of the Nicola people to send a local man to represent them in the next parliament, in the person of a well known farmer. We are getting tired of this lobsided representation—three representatives living almost next door to each other.

The temperance people of Nicola have been fighting for their rights lately but the officers of the law do not give them much backing. In fact there wants a sort of shuffling up of J. P.'s, men that are firm and not afraid of dealing out justice.

We are sadly in need of a constable. Mr. Hugh Hunter, who has acted as special for the last two years, has filled the position with credit to himself, but what we want is a permanent official.

Nicola is going to poll a strong vote next election and try and have the rights adjusted. NICOLA RIVER.

THE LATE HON. A. E. B. DAVIE.

The Hon. A. E. B. DAVIE, a man distinguished alike for his qualities as a public man and his virtues as a citizen, has passed over to the "silent majority." The event was not unexpected. Mr. DAVIE, for the last year it may be said, has been treading in the "valley of the shadow of death." Stricken with a fatal pulmonary complaint, the consciousness that he must soon cross the "dark river" was constantly before him, which to a man in his prime and occupying the most exalted public function in the province, must have tried his fortitude and perhaps have made it difficult for him to reconcile the ways of God to man. But he never once complained. The qualities which made Mr. DAVIE so useful in his public and private dealings, buoyed him up to meet the prematurity of his end as became a man, and as a believer in Him who doeth all things well. Mr. DAVIE in all his relations, public, private and social, had the faculty of inspiring confidence and winning the esteem of all with whom he came in contact. An active politician he was inspired by the highest motives; his integrity was never questioned. Such were his natural abilities, his capacity for acquiring knowledge, and his industry that success attended his efforts at a period of life when others are just beginning. Honors came to him early, and it is not too much to say that he carried them with the modesty which characterizes the true gentleman. British Columbia has lost a conscientious public servant; society has lost an estimable and useful citizen, and the legal profession one of its brightest ornaments. A. E. B. DAVIE will long linger in the memory of British Columbians. We shall not say that we shall not soon meet his like, but the province could ill afford to lose him. His loss if not irreparable is serious. "May he rest in peace."

WIT AMONG LEADERS.

Relative to the discussion of the "royal grants" the Montreal Star points out that LABOUCHERE is not a "safe guide to follow." Mr. LABOUCHERE has the misfortune of being a wit, a satirist, and something of a humorist, three qualities incompatable with leadership in public affairs, qualities in fact which seem to render the possessor superfluous on the world's stage, except for the purpose of keeping people amused. At first thought we ask ourselves why should not the witty, humorous man be as wise as the "most potent, grave and reverend signor?" Why should not LABOUCHERE be as safe a guide as the man who deals in dry facts only? Why should the man who effevesces forfeit the right to be regarded sound on the sober questions with which he may be called upon to deal. Space does not permit us to delve deep into the question of the relative trustworthyness of men who responsive to their temperaments, exemplify gravity and its antitheses, wit and humor. The latter class of men as a rule have seldom distinguished themselves in leading capacities in which the world was profoundly interested. Of the exceptions to the rule, who are they. Perhaps, in order to discuss this question intelligently we shall have to rearrange our argument, by classing wit along with gravity, although certainly there is a difference between the two. Well, so let it be, gravity and wit go together. In grave SALISBURY'S allusion to editor O'BRIEN'S "tragic nudity," we have the quintessence of wit and gravity. Let us, therefore, as it simplifies matters, assume that gravity and wit are inseparable. But of funny men who of them has ever gained a commanding place in the world outside of letters. LINCOLN! LINCOLN was a joker par excellence. It will have to be borne in mind, however, that LINCOLN'S yarns, grotesque as many of them were, invariably illustrated a point. He was the master of the faculty of "pointing a moral to adorn a tale." He might not unjustly be called the American Æsop. It is said of GARFIELD that he never assayed but one funny speech. To have acted the buffoon again would have cost him his seat in Congress. Politics with his constituents were a serious matter. From what we can learn of men, that is wise men, they are all possessed of a perennial fund of humor. No wise man can be wise and be devoid of this volatile quality; whereas, a man may have a keen sense of humor and not be profoundly wise. It matters not that SHAKESPEARE'S clowns are philosophic and that MARK TWAIN and BILL NYE are not without a like taint, their mental peregrinations into profundity are occasional, not consecutive, and the world will have none of them except as purveyors of mirth, the which it is needless to remark the world willingly pays for. On the whole, however, there is nothing to deplore in the fact that some men are too volatile to be able to fathom the profoundest depths of thought. It seems to be a law that men who spontaneously effervesce, are disqualified from dealing with the graver questions which beset society, and what is law is for our good. It is not desirable that men should treat seriously all questions. The constitution of the human mind requires the stimulant of humor. And so if LABOUCHERE is too versatile a man to be profound, he is at least entertaining, a compensation indeed for uncertain guidance.

GOD IN THE CONSTITUTION.

The politicians of Washington Territory have been having a little spat in the matter of the introduction of GOD'S name into the preamble of the constitution. A Mr. STYLES offered a preamble in which the name of the Deity did not appear. Mr. DYER offered a substitute to the effect: "Grateful to Almighty GOD, etc." At this up jumped a member and objected to a cheap advertisement of belief in GOD. Another member thought that to omit GOD from the constitution would show a tendency to infidelity. "If we do not respect GOD," said the gentleman, "GOD will not respect the constitution." At this juncture somebody offered a substitute reading: "Profoundly grateful to Almighty GOD, etc." The chairman of the committee on the preamble at this juncture joined in the fray, saying that while he was as firmly convinced as any man in the house of a Superior Intelligence, he did not believe in proclaiming it from the housetops. Mr. SULLIVAN, whose name gives his nationality away, thought the report of the committee should be sustained. He (Mr. SULLIVAN) had been living under the constitution of the United States which contained no reference to GOD, which was good enough for him. The insertion of "grateful words" in a purely political instrument would have little effect upon the Deity. After this it leaked out that there were eleven states in the Union in whose constitutions there was no reference to the Deity, and so the debate drifted on, nobody disputing the existence of a Deity, but in no wise agreed in the matter of incorporation of the name of the Deity in the constitution of Washington.

AN UNDIGNIFIED DODGE.

Mr. GROVER CLEVELAND, who on retiring from the presidency of the United States, was admitted into a New York law firm ostensibly because of his legal ability, but in reality as an advertisement, has not in the latter respect proved a paying investment. No additional business has accrued to the office since Mr. CLEVELAND'S induction. Beyond helping to get rid of a lot of work which had accumulated Mr. CLEVELAND has been of no advantage to the firm whatever. Nor could anything more have been expected under the circumstances. In the first place CLEVELAND scarcely possesses mediocre legal attainments, and in the second place the divinity which doth hedge a President round about disappears so soon as his term of office expires. To have been President of the United States is indeed an honor, but as a President is more times than not the outcome of a "dark horse," a man of no marked ability nor great repute, it is inevitable that so soon as he becomes a simple citizen again, the inconsequentialness of his anti-presidential days should be resumed. Having been a president does not make a lawyer nor yet a statesman of a man any more than having been Secretary of the Navy makes a sailor. That consequently CLEVELAND should not have proved a good advertising card among a people as practical as the Americans, is not surprising. Had it turned out otherwise, and particularly in CLEVELAND'S case, we should be compelled to infer that Americans had forgotten how to transact business and had turned veritable snobs.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Pall Mall Budget: Why should not the Archbishop of Canterbury invite Cardinal Manning to his next Lambeth party? The Bishop of Manchester (Dr. Moorhouse) broke the ice by inviting his Roman Catholic friend and neighbor, Dr. Vaughan (Bishop of Salford), to a garden party a few days ago. Dr. Vaughan accepted the invitation, fraternized with his Protestant colleague, and nobody has so far raised the cry of the "church is in danger." When Dr. Moorhouse was Bishop of Melbourne he was on equally excellent terms with Dr. Vaughan's brother, the late Archbishop of Sydney. Both broad minded, liberal prelates, they sat and smoked together, enjoyed each other's society, and discussed the latest developments of religious thought in the old world. When Archbishop Vaughan died the noblest tribute to his memory was paid by Bishop Moorhouse in the course of an address to his Church of England assembly in Melbourne.

—There is comfort in store for persons troubled with lame back, rheumatic pains, sores or bunions, who commence without delay, a course of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, followed up systematically until relief is obtained.

—F. Burrows, of Wilkesport, writes that he was cured of a very dangerous case of inflammation of the lungs, solely by the use of five bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Feels great pleasure in recommending it to the public, as he had proved it (for many of the diseases it mentions to cure) through his friends, and in nearly every instance it was effectual.

—THE LAWS OF THE MEDES AND PERSIANS were not more immutable than those of nature. If we transgress them we suffer. Sometimes, however, we break them inadvertently. Damages frequently take the form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Biliousness, which can be easily repaired with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the Great Blood Purifier and renovator of the system.

—A lady from Syracuse writes: "For about seven years before taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure, I suffered from a complaint very prevalent with our sex. I was unable to walk any distance or stand on my feet for more than a few minutes at a time without feeling exhausted, but now I am thankful to say, I can walk two miles without feeling the least inconvenience." For Female Complaints it has no equal. *

Lived 115 Years.

Francesco Huppazoli, a Piedmontese, born in 1587, was one of the few men who lived to date their letters in three centuries. His first illness, after teething, was when he was 114 years old. At 100 his hair, beard and eyebrows, which were snowy white, became jet black. At 112 he had two new teeth, but before his death both the old and the new teeth disappeared, and he was obliged to live on soup. He was five times married, and was the father of forty-nine children, four of whom were born after he was 99 years old. At the age of 82 he was appointed Consul of Venice, Smyrna. He died in 1702, aged 115 years.

As this is a Home Company, organized by British Columbians for the two-fold purpose of giving cheap insurance and keeping the money in this Province, it commends itself to the support of every insurer desiring the prosperity of this country.

In Ontario, the system of insurance, which is similar to that adopted by this Company, has been in highly successful operation for the past fifty years, and it has proved to be a great advantage to every insurer in it, by reducing the cost of insurance, and it is estimated that now three-fourths of the insurance effected in Ontario is carried by mutual companies.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Communications—Reports—By-Laws—Contracts Awarded.

At 8 o'clock last evening the regular weekly meeting of the City Aldermen was held. Present: Mayor Grant, Alds. Kelly, Harris, Wilson, Vigelius, McKillican, Harrison, Goodacre and Coughlan.

Minutes of previous meeting read and on motion adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Beaumont Boggs, asking for street lines on Michigan street. Granted.

From W. M. Chudley, again calling attention to the fact that the Board should give some idea when a donation will be handed over to the Jubilee Hospital committee.

His Worship said it would not be of any use to put the matter off. The Jubilee Hospital committee had no connection with the sale of the property on which the Royal Hospital stands.

Ald. McKillican moved that the sum of $1,000 be donated to the Royal Jubilee Hospital.

Ald. Vigelius said the site of the present Royal Hospital would be disposed of in a few days. The finance committee intended to bring in a report at the next meeting of the Board and would ask for further time.

On motion the communication was received and action deferred.

From Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, stating that cutting the Johnson street sewer caused considerable damage to Mr. Bossi's building on Store street and asking that the damage be attended to at once.

Ald. Harris moved that the communication be referred to the sewerage committee to report. Carried.

From Drake, Jackson & Helmcken re Mrs. McTavish's fence. Referred to the street committee.

From Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, calling attention to the state of the beach near the wharf at Ross Bay. On behalf of the Douglas estate the legal gentlemen stated that they would enforce the injunction should the board refuse to abate the nuisance caused by depositing dead animals on the beach. Referred to city barristers and sanitary committee.

From R. B. McMicking, tendering for a Gamewell fire alarm system. Referred to fire wardens and electric light committee.

From Hoyt, Barton & Howell re water pipes. Received and referred to water committee.

From C. W. R. Thomson, calling attention to a defective sidewalk leading to the gas works on Store street. Referred to street committee.

From Yates & Jay, enclosing draft of Victoria-Saanich-New Westminster Railway. Laid on the table.

From W. J. Macauley, asking permission to run a drain from his residence across the street to the beach near Beacon Hill. Granted subject to the supervision of street committee.

From T. W. Reilly, on behalf of the St. Paul Journal of Commerce, re articles on Vancouver Island. The writer asked the board to subscribe for 2500 copies at five cents each. Laid on table.

PETITIONS.

From a number of ratepayers on Elizabeth street asking for better drainage. Referred to street committee.

From J. H. Turner and other residents of Work street asking for a larger main, a fire hydrant and light.

Ald. Harrison said nine residents on Work street are asking for a four-inch main, while 32 residents of one street in James Bay ward take water from a one-inch main.

Ald. McKillican said it was not necessary to take the light into consideration, the electric light committee already considered the advisability of placing a light on Bridge street.

Referred to electric light and water committees.

BY-LAWS.

The Victoria, Saanich and New Westminster Share by-law, 1889, introduced by Ald. Goodacre, was read a second time.

His Worship explained that he sold his interest in the company when it was proposed to ask the board to grant aid to the railway company.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The communication from Mr. Reilly re advertising the city was taken up and discussed.

Ald. Coughlan said he could see no reason for this expenditure.

Ald. Harris said he saw an article in the New York Sun which stated that grass was growing in the streets of Victoria. An article in the Journal of Commerce would counteract that base falsehood.

The communication was referred to a select committee.

A petition from residents of Montreal street for a large water main and a fire hydrant was referred to the water committee with power to act.

TENDERS.

Ald. Vigelius said the tenders for grading Dallas road should be laid over for one week. On motion the matter was laid over.

Tenders for additions to the City Hall were laid over for one week and the time for receiving tenders was extended.

Tenders for grading Humboldt street and laying a sidewalk were read from John Cox, Noel LeClaire, John Haggarty and James Baker. Referred to street committee and city surveyor with power to grant the contract to the lowest tenderer.

Tenders were then opened for grading and graveling Catherine street, James Bay.

The contract was awarded to George Demain for the sum of $2360. The next lowest tenderer was James Baker who offered to do the work for $6387.

On motion the tenders were submitted to the street committee to award the contract to the next lowest tenderer should Mr. Demain refuse to sign the contract.

Tenders for police clothing were handed to the police committee to be awarded to the lowest tenderer.

OFFICERS REMUNERATION BY-LAW.

The amendment to the officers remuneration introduced by Ald. Wilson was read a first time.

The assessment amendment by-law introduced by Ald. Kelly was read a first time.

REPORTS.

The street committee made several recommendations which were adopted.

Ald. Harris reported that Mr. Edwin Johnson was preparing the Consolidated by-laws.

LORD STANLEY'S VISIT.

His Worship called the attention of the Board to the proposed visit of Lord Stanley.

Ald. Harris moved, seconded by Ald. McKillican, that a public meeting be called at an early day. Carried.

REPAIRING DALLAS ROAD.

Ald. Wilson said it would be a good piece of work to remove the dust from Erie street, from the outer wharf to Niagara street. The matter was referred to the street committee.

Ald. McKillican considered that a new arrangement should be made in the rooms used as offices in the City Hall.

Alds. Goodacre and Harris considered that better offices should be provided for the corporation officials.

Ald. Harris considered that the bottom of the new lake should be made of concrete.

On motion of Ald. Vigelius the usual holidays were granted the corporation officials.

A MASONIC MATTER.

Result of a Controversy Over the Cerneau Scottish Rite.

Washington, July 30—The controversy which is general among the Masonic fraternity throughout the country respecting the Cerneau Scottish rite has culminated here in the issue of an edict by Harrison Bingman, most worshipful grand master of Masons of the District of Columbia, under date of July 25, pronouncing the Cerneau organization clandestine and warning all members of that rite that they are liable to discipline from the grand lodge unless they at once withdraw from the Cerneau body.

The main reason for the edict, aside from other questions in the Scottish rite controversy, is stated to be that the Cerneau organization has established relations of amity and Masonic correspondence with the Grand Orient of France, the governing body of Masons in that country, which is under the ban of at least every English-speaking grand lodge in the world, because the Grand Orient has stricken the name of God from its rituals.

Grand lodges of this country, it is said, have an additional grievance against the Grand Orient of France because the latter persists in recognizing negro grand lodges of the United States.

THE WRECKED WHALER.

Fate of the Little Ohio—Twenty-Five Lives Lost.

San Francisco, July 30.—The steamer Dora, from the Seal Islands of Alaska, brings two survivors of the whaling bark Little Ohio, from New Bedford, which was wrecked off Point Hope, Alaska, October 31, 1888. From them the details of the wreck are learned for the first time. Cape Lisburne was sighted on the morning of October 30. The day was windy and towards evening one of the worst storms ever experienced in that region came up. About 9 o'clock the bark struck near Point Hope, but, as the air was dense with snow, it was at first thought that an iceberg had been struck. The vessel settled, rapidly going to pieces, and Captain George Allen ordered the first mate to cut away the masts. This was the last order ever given by the captain, as he was never seen again, a heavy sea carrying him overboard. The Ohio broke up rapidly, but the seas were so strong, that it was impossible for the men (who were nearly frozen to death) to keep their hold to the masts and rigging and they were thrown to the mercy of the raging waters.

There were on board thirty-three men, and but eight now survive. Most of the men were so stiff that they could not keep themselves above water, and perished before the vessel went to pieces. Alexander Omey gave up hope while on the vessel, and killed himself with a pistol shot. First mate Thomas F. Pierce and second mate Thomas M. Miles were so badly frozen that they died on the beach. Several of the men were killed by the dashes of the wreck while they were attempting to crawl up on the beach. October 10 the third mate Manuel Lobs and fourth mate Joseph Emma, with three sailors, put off to intercept a passing whaling bark, and the natives say that they saw the boat capsize, and all were drowned.

THE DEITY.

Constitution Makers Debate on the Propriety of Recognizing God.

Olympia, W. T., July 30.—Shall the Deity be recognized in the constitution? was the question that led to an extended and acrimonious debate, to the indulgence of heated personalities between two members in the convention to-day. The discussion arose over the report of the committee on preamble and bill of rights which made a simple declaration of the purpose of the foundation of the constitution without the customary recognition of the Supreme Being. When the preamble proposed was read three amendments and substitutes were immediately offered, and it was on the one made by Judge Turner that the debate was precipitated. The remarks of the members were for the most part wholly reverent, but the opposition to the substitute was none the less decided in its expressions. It was contended that the constitution of the United States contains no reference to God and that the Supreme Being had directly nothing whatever to do with the formation of this constitution. A reference to His all-wise providence made as a matter of form and as a matter of courtesy to the Deity would be a piece of demagogy and buncombe that would demonstrate only the deep insincerity of the persons who placed it in the constitution. On the other hand it was held that the expression was customary and that it appropriately and religiously acknowledged the dependence of all things moral upon the Supreme Being. To leave it out would be to encourage a belief that it was omitted because of the infidelity and irreverence of the people of Washington. These and many other arguments were elaborated upon long and earnestly. The personal remarks were brought about by E. H. Sullivan, who in course of a somewhat violent harangue indirectly impugned the motives of Turner in introducing the substitute. This Turner resented in a speech that excoriated Sullivan severely. The matter was finally brought to a vote and the substitutes defeated by two majority. Then an amendment offered by Minor which compromised on the "Supreme Being" instead of "God" was offered and lost on a tie vote. The question was referred to the committee, which met to-night and decided to submit exactly the same report to-morrow.

A New Company.

The following appears in the London Canadian Gazette of the 11th July: The Vancouver City Land Company, Limited, was registered on the 2nd inst., with a capital of £28,000, in shares of £1, to take over an agreement between Major C. T. Dupont and Mr. C. B. B. O'Callaghan, of 107 Cannon Street, E. C., relating to the acquisition by the company of land and property in Vancouver City and other parts of British Columbia, power being also taken to acquire property in other parts of Canada. The subscribers to the articles of association are the following, all for one share each: Mr. C. H. Rand, Essex Villa, Wandsworth Common, land agent; Mr. N. Thatcher Beckingsale, Wellington, Somerset, solicitor; Mr. J. Robinson, 107 Cannon Street, E. C.; Mr. E. W. Beckingsale, C. E., Grove Park, Chiswick; Mr. J. Paterson, 20 Sussex Street, Glasgow, engineer; Mr. W. D. Brown, Hamilton, Lanark, writer; and Mr. C. B. Bernard O'Callaghan, 107 Cannon Street, E. C., clerk.

Pacific Coast Defences.

Captain William T. Sampson, of the United States navy, in a pamphlet devoted to the consideration of the naval defences of this coast, says that these defences may now be confined to San Francisco and Puget Sound. To properly defend San Francisco and the lower coast he estimates would require three first class naval vessels, costing $10,500,000; two rams, costing $2,000,000; and fifteen torpedo boats, costing $1,500,000.

The important places on the Columbia river need no naval protection except to prevent a blockade. For this purpose it will be necessary to station a sufficient force in Puget Sound, which can act to protect both the Sound and the Columbia river against blockade.

Puget Sound is rapidly going in importance, and is destined to become the site of an important naval station. The tonnage of this Sound reported for the past years makes it rank next to New Jersey, and, according to states, it ranks eighth in the Union. The present isolated position of this part of our country, its proximity to the boundary, the fact that it faces a strongly fortified naval station of England at Victoria, renders it prudent to provide an adequate defense. Suitable land defenses should be at once placed at the narrowest part of Admiralty inlet, and the magnitude of the defenses should keep pace with the growing commerce of the locality in order that it may have unobstructed ingress and egress. The present promise of its commerce demands that there be provided two first class naval vessels at a cost of $7,000,000, and fifteen torpedo boats, costing $1,500,000. Of course a large force would be required to efficiently man these warships.

The Canadian Pacific Land and Mortgage Company, Limited, (Foreign).

Registered the 10th day of July, 1889.

CERTIFICATE OF REGISTRATION.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT I HAVE THIS day registered "The Canadian Pacific Land and Mortgage Company, Limited, (Foreign)" under the "Companies' Act," Part IV, Registration of Foreign Companies.

The objects for which the Company is established are:

1. To purchase, take under any concession, lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, settle, improve, farm and cultivate lands of any tenure, franchises and hereditaments situate in the Dominion of Canada, the United States of North America, or elsewhere, including any mines, minerals, ships, steamboats, barges, and other vessels, engines, railway wagons, tanks, reservoirs, manufacturing plant, apparatus and stock in trade, and any other real and personal property of whatever description, whether the same be unencumbered or subject to any mortgage, charge, lien, easements, privileges, licenses, concessions or otherwise, and to develop the resources of any such properties by building any kind of structure thereupon, planting, reclaiming, clearing, mining, quarrying, excavating, damming, draining, farming, and otherwise dealing with and working the same, and to stock lands and farms and to breed, grow and deal in all kinds of stock, cattle, horses, sheep and produce, and to erect and maintain therefor suitable buildings and structures, including slaughtering, refrigerating, and converting establishments.

2. To invest money by way of advance, or loan at interest to any person or persons, or corporations, upon the security of any property and securities whatever, real or personal, including produce, crops and manufactures, government and all other stocks, bonds, mortgages, or securities, whether British, colonial, or foreign, and generally to buy, manufacture, deal in and sell all kinds of goods, chattels, merchandise, produce and effects.

3. To aid, encourage and promote immigration, emigration and colonization, and for such purposes to lend and grant any sums of money, and to act as agents therefor.

4. To work, win, convert, sell, use or otherwise deal with all or any mineral property of the Company, to construct or acquire, take concessions of purchase or lease, hire, maintain, improve, work and use, or aid in, or subscribe towards the construction, maintenance, improvement and working of roads, ways, streets, tramways, wire tramways, electric or other power, telegraph and telephone lines and works, or other means of communication or appliances of a similar nature, railways, railway stock, locomotives, engines, docks, piers, harbors, quays, wharves, landing stages, jetties, slips, stores, bridges, canals, channels, wells, buoys, lights and beacons, viaducts, aqueducts, water works, flumes, culverts, ditches, warehouses, factories, shops, churches, chapels, schools, libraries, institutes, inns, foundries, brick kilns, reduction works, gas and water works, electric lighting or power works, hotels, mills, undertakings, works, and other buildings and structures, of every description, and for the above purposes to enter into and carry into effect any contracts, and apply for, accept, and carry into effect such concessions, licenses or authorities as may be deemed necessary or advisable.

5. To acquire running powers, rights or easements over and to make arrangements with any companies or persons for the joint working of any railway, tramway, or line of electric wire, or other similar means of communication.

6. To build, purchase, charter, hire or otherwise acquire, maintain, repair and use steam and other ships and vessels, and to carry on the business of ship owners, lightermen, wharfingers, dock owners, warehousemen, ship chandlers, commission and shipping agents, and to levy cranage, anchorage, lighterage and other dues and tolls, either in connection with the other businesses of the Company, or as an independent source of profit.

7. To transact all manner of agency and commission business, and in particular to act as agents for any persons or corporation in the purchase, sale, or management in any way of lands, hereditaments and other property in the Dominion of Canada, the United States of North America, or elsewhere, where the Company may for the time then being be carrying on business, and to carry on the business of general, commercial, mercantile, shipping or forwarding agents, or agents for any railway, steamship, or other company.

8. To accept and hold any property whatsoever upon any trust whatever, and to make advances against the same, and to issue debentures there against, and to act as trustees, attorneys or agents of or for any persons, living or dead, or of any company, corporation, public body or supreme government, and also as real or personal representatives of any deceased persons.

9. To transact all business connected with the investment and loan of money at interest, to receive money on deposit, and generally to transact and carry on every description of banking, discount, exchange and financial business.

10. To make, draw, accept, indorse, discount and execute promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments.

11. To build, lay out, settle, colonize and develop towns and villages on the lands acquired or controlled by the Company from time to time.

12. To purchase or otherwise acquire the exclusive or limited right to use information as regards any inventions, whether patented or not, which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to acquire any grants, charters, concessions, patents, patent rights, monopolies, brevets d'inventions, copyrights or licenses, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licenses in respect of, or otherwise turn to account the property, rights and information acquired.

13. To take or otherwise acquire, and hold or sell shares, stock, debentures, or any other interest in any other company, whether British or foreign, in which the liability of the members is limited, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company.

14. To purchase or otherwise acquire or undertake all or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership or persons carrying on, or about to carry on, any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the business for the time being of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to make and carry into effect arrangements with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests or amalgamation, either in whole or in part, of this Company with any such company, corporation, society, partnership or persons.

15. To dispose of by sale, lease, underlease, exchange, surrender, mortgage or otherwise absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights or privileges of the Company as a going concern or otherwise, to any public body, company, society or association, or to any person or persons, and in particular to any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to accept as the consideration, or part of the consideration for such disposal money, stock shares, debentures or other securities, either for distribution in specie among the members or otherwise.

16. To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold and sell the stock, shares, scrip, certificates, bonds, obligations, debentures and securities of any other company, or of any supreme, municipal, public or local board or authority.

17. To borrow and raise money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and upon such terms as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the repayment thereof by bonds or debentures, or by redeemable or unredeemable debenture stock (such bonds, debentures and debenture stock being made payable to bearer or otherwise) or by any other instruments, or by bills of exchange, or promissory notes, or in such other manner as may be determined, and for any such purposes to charge all or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future), including the uncalled capital.

18. To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament, or legislative provision, decree or order of any colony, foreign government, body or authority, to incorporate the members as a body politic or corporate, in accordance with the laws and constitution of any country or state in which the Company shall be carrying on, or be desirous of carrying on, any of its operations, and to take all steps and do all things necessary to give the Company, or any company subsidiary thereto, a legal domicile in any such country or state, and such legislative powers as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company therein.

19. To give any guarantee of whatever description in relation to the stock, shares, debentures or other securities of obligations of any company or supreme, public, municipal or local body or authority, and generally to guarantee the performance of any covenant or obligation.

20. To transact all business connected with the investment and loan of money at interest.

21. To allot the shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration.

22. To appropriate and apply such parts of the capital of the Company as may be expedient to the payment of such brokerage, discounts and other expenses as may be deemed incidental to the formation and promotion of the Company, and the placing of its shares and debentures, or any part thereof.

23. To aid any government or state, or any municipal, local or other body politic or corporate, or company or association, or individuals with capital, credit, means or resources, for the prosecution of any works, undertakings, projects or enterprises.

24. To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either alone or in partnership or conjunction with any person or other association, and either as principals or agents, and to contract for the carrying on of any operation connected with the Company's business by any person or other association.

25. To carry out the objects comprised in each paragraph of this clause in as full and ample a manner, and construed in as wide a sense as they would be construed if each paragraph of this clause defined the objects of a separate, distinct and independent company, and so that such objects shall not, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be restricted by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph.

26. To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, or which the Company shall consider incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or incorporate, and wherever domiciled.

The amount of capital stock of the said Company is £250,000, divided into 25,000 shares of £10 each.

The place of business of the said Company is located at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and affixed my seal of office this 10th day of July, 1889, at the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

Catch of the Otter Hunters.

The schooner Vanderbilt, which left San Francisco on a fishing cruise on March 10, 1888, returned to port on Saturday last, after a passage of 14 days from Sanak, Alaska. Capt. Turner reports having seen the following vessels: Schooner Helen Blum, with 83 otter skins; schooner City of San Diego, 65 otter skins; schooner Alexander, 35 otter skins, and the schooner San Jose, 700 otter skins.

County Court Judges.

The Nanaimo Courier says: "We hardly think that any of the above named gentlemen, except, perhaps, Mr. Corbould, would be acceptable to the people of their respective jurisdictions. There are other and better men, to whom the country owes more or less gratitude, that would be only too willing to accept county judgeships, but then, possibly, they are not favorites with the power behind the throne."

Hymeneal.

Mr. Wm. Dalby, of this city, and Miss Netherby, of Portage la Prairie, were united in marriage at Vancouver last evening, at the residence of Mr. Robert Grant, the Rev. E. D. McLaren officiating. The bride left this city a short time ago to visit her relatives in Portage la Prairie. On return she was met by the groom at the terminal city, when the auspicious event was consummated. The happy couple have our warmest congratulations.

In Durance Vile.

Wm. Leith Ross, the young man enjoying the seclusion of the city lock-up for having promissory notes signed by millionaires in his possession, and other loose change, in all over $100,000, is hopeful of eventually getting free without any stigma attaching to his name. He whiles away the time in gaol in reading and smoking and his meals are not the ordinary prison food, but choice morsels from the Delmonico. His friend Hutton calls on him regularly and he, too, is sanguine of his friend establishing his innocence.

AN UNUSUAL SCENE.

Coroner Jackson's Severity to Brother Physicians at an Inquest.

If the reporter reported faithfully the recent inquest on the late McNab Stuart, and there seems to be no doubt of it, the mantle of His Lordship the Chief Justice has descended on Coroner Jackson. At the inquest in question the coroner had considerable fault to find. He proposed to fine Dr. Milne, for declining to make the post mortem, and he took exceptions to the evidence of Dr. Renwick, who said that the deceased was in fair health barring a slight heart ailment. The coroner could not understand how a man's general health could be good who was suffering from heart affection. Versatile as the journalist is expected to be, the science of medicine is not within his province, still in his weak way he is of the opinion that a man with a diseased heart may, and in fact does, lead in the large proportion of instances an active and even laborious existence. However this being a matter of professional opinion, we leave it for the M. D.'s to decide. To address ourselves to another feature of the case, the fining of Dr. Milne for declining to perform the post mortem, we confess ourselves very much at sea. It is possible that Dr. Milne is liable to a fine, but we should suppose that in a case of this kind professional courtesy would have interposed in favor of granting Dr. Milne's very reasonable request. It, however, we discover some sympathy for the doctors who have fallen under the ban of the coroner's displeasure the Begbieish treatment of the lawyers does not arouse in us the sentiment of commiseration to which perhaps they are entitled. Seriously, though, it seems to us as if the coroner might have exercised courtesy to all the parties concerned without derogation to his dignity.

OBITUARY.

Death of the Hon. A. E. B. Davie This Morning.

The Hon. A. E. B. Davie, premier of British Columbia, died at his residence, Michigan street, this morning shortly before four o'clock. He had been ailing, more or less, for some years and unable to take an active part in public business for the past two years. Gradually growing weaker from month to month it has been apparent to his friends that the end was drawing very near. His death does not come altogether unexpected to any portion of the community. In the demise of the Hon. Mr. Davie the province loses one of its most valued public servants and one who enjoyed a greater degree of confidence than almost any other man connected with the public affairs of the country. Possessed of good abilities and a ready delivery his opinions were at all times listened to with pleasure in the legislature, while the possession of the same qualities has made him a successful lawyer in his practice at the bar of the province. His opinions on matters connected with his department were generally accepted as correct by his supporters in the house, while his opponents, with a belief that they were the result of honest enquiry, did not fail to attach due importance to them. On the floor of the house Mr. Davie was always the soul of fairness. Frequently he has interfered on behalf of the weaker party, when less considerate colleagues strove to set aside their contentions merely by force of numbers. In his department the deceased was a hard worker and possessed a thorough knowledge of its details. Indeed it is quite possible that too close application to business has had much to do with the illness which has caused his death, at a time when, ordinarily, he should have been in the vigor of manhood.

On the recommendation of his physician, several changes of climate were tried in 1887, and again last year, but while the temporary results were good no permanent cure was effected. No power could stay the ruthless ravages of consumption.

Mr. Davie was born in Somersetshire, England, in 1846, and came to this country in 1862 with his father. He was educated at Silcoate's college, near Wakefield, Yorkshire, which school has turned out many prominent men, such as the Crossleys and the Mialls who were members of parliament for Bradford and for Leeds. On December 3rd, 1872, married Constance Langford, third daughter of the late Thomas Skinner, of Maple Bay, Cowichan, and she with four young children are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. He was articled as a clerk in Drake & Jackson's office. He was admitted as an attorney in 1868, and was called to the bar of the province in 1873. He lived for a time in Cariboo practising at his profession. He was law clerk for the legislative assembly from 1872 to 1874, and in 1875 was elected as a member for Cariboo district. In May, 1877, he became a member of the executive council of the Elliott government, and on going before his constituents for re election in August of the same year he was defeated. In 1879 he formed a law partnership with Mr. Speaker Pooley, which has existed up to the present time, the firm enjoying a very large and profitable practice. At the general election in 1882, Mr. Davie was elected for Lillooet, and when the late Mr. W. Smythe was called upon to form a ministry in 1883, he selected the deceased as his attorney-general, a position he occupied up to the day of his death. On 21st September, 1883, he was made Q. C. On the death of the late Mr. Smythe in March, 1887, the deceased succeeded that gentleman as premier and president of the council, and retained the confidence of a large majority of the members of the legislature.

As already stated the deceased occupied a high position in his profession and was a teacher of the law society. When the vacancy occurred on the bench of the Supreme Court by the death of Hon. J. H. Gray, Mr. Davie was offered the position, which he declined. Deceased leaves a widow, four children and four brothers Dr. J. C. Davie, Mr. Theodore Davie, Q. C., Mr. William Davie and Mr. Horace Davie. The bereaved family will have the sympathy of the whole province in their great affliction. Before his death the sacrament of the holy Catholic church was administered.

Flags throughout the city were flying at half-mast to-day in respect to the deceased.

The funeral will take place at nine o'clock Saturday morning. In accordance with a wish expressed by Mr. Davie yesterday, it will be of a plain and unostentatious character.

GOLDEN NUGGETS.

Magnificent Specimens Found in Cariboo—The Test Mill.

[From our Special Correspondent.]

Barkerville, July 24, 1889.—The era of big nuggets seems to have dawned on this place. A week or two ago the Chinamen in the Pinkerton claim found a bunch of gold and quartz weighing 34 oz. and which on being pounded up yielded over 24 oz., and being fine gold was worth about $410 and a 6 ounce piece near it together with about 30 ounces fine gold, and to-day another piece was brought in from Begg's gulch, weighing 20 ounces. Another "strike" which may prove of importance was opened by Jarvis Stewart and McAlinden, on Grouse creek, and which is thought by some of the old hands to be the continuation of the "Heron" lead running into the hill, has made stock in the "Hard-up" and "Waverly" look up. They had taken out 50 ounces out of a piece of ground, 10x12 and hadn't bottomed it.

The Black Jack mill is pounding away day and night again, and have sent down 20 or 25 tons of concentrates to the government test works, and will have returns in a week or two; meantime stock has advanced from $1 to $2.50 and $3 has been offered. The test works seems to be fixed up in good shape and everything works well. The concentrates are weighed and dumped in at the head of a long roaster, something like a baker's oven, and you can see through every successive door where it is getting hotter till at the lower end it is at a bright red and after it ceases to sparkle it is pulled out and taken to the pans. This department is in charge of Mr. Dave McKay. The "battery" in the next building is attended to by Mr. W. V. Bowron, and the pans, concentrator and settler, where we saw Mr. Price cleaning some quicksilver, appears to be in that gentleman's charge, while in the engine room Mr. Bob. Middleton appeared to be running things. A quantity of quartz is lying on the dump to be tested; 10 tons from the "Wilkison;" 10 tons from the "Forest" and a batch from the "Dufferin" and "Mayflower" is being put through. Mr. Jack Pomeroy is also going to get some out of the "Poquette," so that if the institution is able to save the gold, of which there seems little doubt, under the guidance of Mr. Martin, quite a number of reefs will be tested. The Nason Co., Antler creek, was going along bravely until this morning when the machinery broke in such a way that it will take probably a month to put it in working trim again. The water is about over for the hydraulic claims and the dull roar of the torrent rushing against the bank no longer disturbs the weary sleeper.

Haying is begun and Messrs. Mason, Bibby and Rogers are "making hay while the sun shines" for all they are worth.

Mrs. Hageman, who had been lingering for some time, was buried by a large assemblage of mourners yesterday. More anon.

DIED.

DAVIE.—At his residence, Michigan street, Victoria, on the 1st instant, the Hon. Alex. E. B. Davie, Premier of British Columbia, aged 43 years.

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 9 a.m., and at St. Andrew's pro-cathedral, View street, at half-past 9 o'clock.

PROCLAMATION.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT CHANCELLOR Browning, Commissioner for the C. P. R., has this, the 26th day of July, 1889, issued a proclamation warning all persons from purchasing lots from Samuel Greer in Lot 526, Group One. Now, may it please Your Lordship, I have never offered for sale any lots in said Lot 526, for that would be deception on the public, as the highest legal authority in British Columbia pronounced the title to that lot straw—not one cent as consideration having been given. Now, if Your Lordship will adjust your wig and recover from your deep studies of Blackstone and the laws of estoppal, you will be able to see that the four Judges who threw your case out of Court last April were fully able to comprehend the difference between 526 and Pre-emption Record 1003, this being the REGISTERED NUMBER of my land on English Bay. Come down and see us I have a few corner lots (with a smattering of coal) yet left. I mean to sell, and the public will persist in buying them, notwithstanding Your Lordship's decision. Things will move just the same at English Bay.

All parties are hereby warned that Angus and Smith have no title to Lot 526 till confirmed by the Legislature, and all sales will be void.
